9 Injuries In 3-Car Pileup; Man Pulls Knife While In Ambulance

Traffic accident injuries set a record for the year over the past weekend with 24 persons requiring treatment as a result of eight of the 16 accidents reported in and near the Quad-Cities. At least five of the victims were hospitalized.

In one three-car pileup on a highway, nine persons were hurt; four were hurt in a one-car crash and three others injured in another one-car mishap. The all-time weekend injury record was set in August 1949 when 27 injuries were reported. Earlier this year, there were two weekends on which 22 persons were hurt in traffic mishaps.

Nine persons, including four small children, were hurt shortly before noon Saturday in a three-car pileup on U.S. Bypass 40-66 at the intersection with S. Highway 67A.

State troopers charged four St. Louis occupants of one auto, with disorderly conduct and one of them, Talmadge Lowman, 30, with flourishing a deadly weapon when he threatened the four children who were sitting in the back seat of the car as they were enroute to St. Elizabeth's Hospital in an ambulance.

The ambulance driver, Arthur Heble, employee of Lathrop General Home, was able to talk Lowman into handing the knife over to him after he heard the children's mother scream.

Lowman was booked at Granite City police headquarters and later freed on $72 cash bond, to appear for a hearing next Monday. His companions, Scott Sanders, 42, driver of their auto, James Jones, 41, and John Harris, 33, were released on $10 cash bond.

State troopers said all three vehicles were traveling west when the pileup occurred at the traffic signal, nearly involving a state police car which also was traveling west and stopped for the light.

In the first car, the driver Arthur E. Soffel, 66, and his wife, Edna, 66, both suffered minor injuries; and in the Sanders auto, Lowman complained of injuries.

The third car, which was pulled a small trailer, was driven by James Dunmer, 36, of Hunt, Tex., and passengers were his wife, Claire, 33, and their four children.

Every member of the Dunmer auto suffered minor injuries.

Thief Hauls Away Cruiser, Trailer, Motor Worth $2800

A boat outfit—18-foot cruiser, trailer and motor—valued at $2800, was stolen over the weekend from the home of Harry Griffin, 3224 Dodge avenue, according to a report made yesterday evening to Granite City police.

Griffin said his family departed last Friday afternoon for an out-of-town trip and returned Sunday afternoon. He did not discover the theft until he went to the rear of his garage to burn tires.

He said the white, red and green cabin cruiser was a pale yellow trailer, complete with a 75 hp motor.

A laundry change was filed yesterday against Vernon Milton Adams, 26, of 820 Jefferson street, West Madison, for allegedly taking a watch from St. Neil Alexander of the Eastern Star Temple after leaving him down in the 400 block of Weaver street, Venice, at about 1:30 a.m. Sunday.

Adams denied taking a wedding ring which the soldier also reported missing, police said. He said the children were still being held in his home.

Gasoline was siphoned from the 1953 auto of George Wagner, 2128 Washington avenue, by thieves who also stole a pair of twenty dice from the auto yesterday night, Wagner told police the theft occurred while the car was parked near his home.

A table-model 21-inch television set was stolen from the former American Legion Post 799 quarters some time Thursday night, Venice police were notified by a report made by 3154 Mercedia street, who resides over the clubhouse. Investigation by police is being conducted.

Hubs were stolen from the 1953 auto of the 1957 auto of James J. Three trailer wheels for a truck were stolen from outside the Clark Hardware Service shop, 2181 street and Edwardsville road, according to a report made Friday morning to Granite City police. The wheels weighed 600 pounds.

The front hubs were stolen from the 1957 auto of Timothy Summers, 3101 St. Louis street, at 10:30 p.m. when the car was parked on the gymnasium parking lot at Granite City high school.

Citizen Interest Key To Successful City

When Granite City won an All-American City award in January 1950, its selection was attributed to "dynamic action by citizens to solve their community's major problems."

It is this factor—citizen action—that is regarded by many authorities as the vital ingredient for a successful city, regardless of the particular form of municipal government in effect.

In earlier articles in this series, it was brought out that there are both good and bad examples of council-manager government. While such statements may seem to be a truism to a Granite Cityan preparing to decide whether to vote Oct. 24, it seems to be a truism that the extent of citizen interest will affect the success of manager government, just as it affects the present system.

A change to managerial government often has occurred because the public was dissatisfied with the way municipal affairs were being conducted. The aroused citizenry then maintained

Mystery Shooting At GC Steel Bldg. In Switch Yards

A repeat of a mysterious shooting incident which occurred last Wednesday evening on U. S. Highway 67A south of Madison, where two holes were shot in the windshield of a 1953 Buick Wildcat, was reported about 12:05 a.m. Sunday to Granite City police by switch yard employees of Granite City Steel Co. No injuries were listed.

The workers reported hearing four shots fired from a field south of the 10th street railroad tracks near the intersection with U. S. Highway 67A, and that two shells struck the wall of the yard office and at least one other hit a locomotive.

The switchyard workers told police that after the shooting they saw a light-colored auto drive west out of the field. The area was searched but police were unable to locate the car or any empty shells.

Hole Shot In Large Fuel Oil Storage Tank

Granite City police were notified about 11 a.m. Sunday that oil was leaking from one of two large storage tanks along Nameoki drive near the intersection with U. S. Highway 67A.

An investigation showed a shot had been fired at the tank with either a high-powered rifle or revolver. No estimate was made of the amount of oil lost from the tank.

The owner, Lindy Walker, 3043 Buxton avenue, was notified and said the large tank contained fuel oil. He said the tank was made of three-sixteenths inch steel.

ed a more dominant role than in the past, and conditions improved under the smaller council and appointed city manager. If the public later relaxed, problems again developed.

Differences In Systems

Although either form of government can succeed or fail, there are differences, of course. The existing procedure involves electing two aldermen from each of eight wards, plus a mayor who serves also as the city's chief executive and administrator.

Under the Oct. 24 proposal, the entire public elects a mayor and four council members who then appoint a city manager as the administrator, answerable to them for carrying out policies set by the council. This is regarded as similar to the school board president-school board superintendent relationship, although there would be only five on the council instead of the seven on the school board.

Contrary to some beliefs, the manager does not merely keep an eye on how funds are being expended; he is the operating head of the city, responsible to the council and through it to the public for all phases of the government's performance.

He is more like a school superintendent than a controller; his duties are chiefly those now

Work Underway On $3,000,000 River Dam Here

Construction has started on a $3,000,000 river dam project just south of the Chain of Rocks river bridge under the supervision of the U. S. Army Engineer District office at St. Louis.

The unique dam is being built of stone with weights ranging from several hundred pounds up to six tons. They are being "dropped" into the river, but placement is being carried out in a scientific manner to assure the proper results.

Planning of the dam dates back before World War II, when the Chain of Rocks canal also was designed to bypass the treacherous reach in the Mississippi River.

The stone work along the banks of the river was completed last year at a cost of $268,000. This work is being done on the $2,943,043 dam itself, under a contract awarded to Massman-Frazier-Davis Construction Co. of St. Louis.

Stone In By Barge

The large stone is being loaded to the site by barge and a floating crane is used for placement. Already at the site on the Illinois shore immediately south of the Madison-owned bridge a steel cut abutment is being constructed.

The low water dam, as it is called, is necessary to raise traffic on the bridge to a level where the river of the low-water plain in the Mississippi River below the Alton. This means the river is scouring a progressively deeper channel just as any stream or river will do.

As a result, with the same amount of water, the surface of the water is at a lower level. The Corps of Engineers explains this is the condition existing below the Alton dam, and a situation has developed where there is insufficient water over the rock sill at Alton to provide nine feet of depth required for inland navigation to go through the locks. This condition exists at low-water periods which occur two or three times a year. About the same time, river traffic was forced to fight against large loads in order to go through the Alton locks.

No Problem At Locks Here

To insure adequate depth over the sill at low water, the Corps of Engineers designed and approved for construction. The problem does not exist at the locks, which the Corps of Engineers points out, "the dam will have nine feet of water over the spillway, but at a year's time velocities are swift and it is not intended that navigation should use the main river over the dam."

The Chain of Rocks canal and locks were placed as a bypass for the river about seven years ago, and most navigation is being it daily.

With the new structure in place, river navigation can proceed as usual.

Registration To End Tonight; 2 Locations Here

Registration for the Nov. 8 election will close tonight at the Quad-Cities and elsewhere in Illinois tonight. Today is the deadline above that of a year ago, but it is not intended that navigation should use the main river over the dam.

Evening hours will be observed by Mrs. Irene Snider, 3829 Nameoki road, until 9 o'clock; Mrs. Andrew Brown, 810 (near) Elder street, Venice, until 9 o'clock; and the office of Miss Eulalia Hotz, county clerk in the courthouse at Edwardsville, until 8 o'clock.

Registration is scheduled to end at 4:30 p.m. today at the city controller's office in the Madison city hall, and at 5 p.m. today at three locations in the city clerk's office at the city hall in Granite City, the Nicholas Studio at 1548 Fourth street, Madison, and the Music Center at 600 Lincoln avenue, Venice.

Woman's Arm Broken By Potato Masher

A mother-daughter fight in which a potato masher was wielded, resulted in a broken arm for the daughter Thursday night.

The Granite City police were summoned to the scene about 10:20 p.m. Thursday when a "family disturbance" was reported in the 2700 block of Myrtle avenue. The daughter, a married woman whose husband is an overseas serviceman, was taken to the dispensary at the Granite City Engineer Depot for emergency treatment.

The cause of the battle was not learned. Neither was the name of the daughter, who filed any charges.

State Seeks Bids Oct. 25 For 20th Street Widening

Start of the long-planned widening of 20th street from Madison avenue to Edwardsville road may be in the near future.

The state division of highway announced today at Springfield that bids will be sought Oct. 25 for the project, extending 69 miles. The work will include concrete base and concrete resurfacing on the roadway which carries U. S. Highway 67A through the city.

The project has been estimated at $170,000, with the state paying 90% of the cost and the remaining 10% to be paid by the city from its motor fuel tax allocations.

Twentieth street is to be widened to four lanes for moving traffic on a median strip. Improvement, extending from Madison avenue to Edwardsville road, will include the widening of the Edwardsville road (State Route 162) intersection and the widening of electric traffic signals there.

The state also will seek bids Oct. 25 on 162 miles of concrete pavement on I-40 Route 70 from approximately 3 mile west to 1.5 miles southwest of the intersection with State Route 111 in Madison and St. Clair counties.

4 Local Men Charged With Beating, Robbery

Charges of assault and robbery were filed Saturday against four Quad-Cities area men after Richard Sleska, 1362 Meridian street, reported to local and county authorities that he had been beaten and robbed of $63 early Saturday morning on Chouteau Slough road.

Sleska identified his assailants as Walter W. White, 29, of 2124 Dewey; Steven L. Winn, 33, of 1912 Harris street; Madison, David Hileman, 29, of 2432 Bryant avenue; and Bill Stamps, 21, of 1903 Kirkpatrick, both of Madison.

The four men were taken into custody Saturday morning by Granite City police and turned over to county authorities in the afternoon. They were still in the county jail today. The warrants were filed by Sleska, and hearings may be held this afternoon before Edwardsville Justice of the Peace M. G. Schaefer.

Sleska, who was badly beaten about the face, said he had toured rural area taverns with the quartet prior to the time he was ejected from his automobile and allegedly beaten and robbed.

Citizen Interest

Who would become mayor and who would serve on the council under managerial government in Granite City? Anyone — either the present officials or others — who received the most votes city-wide.

In a sense, there would be less representation, since an average of seven officials would be eliminated, trimming the size of the mayor-and-council group from 17 to five.

On the other hand, each voter would help select all five instead of the present three — two in his ward and the mayor. The office of street superintendent could remain elective or could be changed by the council to an appointive position.

How much will this cost? Would it be more expensive? Not necessarily, a study reveals. It seems certain that the pay would be much less than at present.

Present Mayor, Council Pay

Not counting his secretary or other city employees, Mayor Leonard R. Davis is paid $8000 a year. Aldermen meet three times a month and receive $250 a meeting. Some getting as much as $30 a month for expenses, and others do not. Thus, some of the 10 aldermen are paid as much as $105 a month or $1260 a year. Others get $75 or $800.

The 1959 median salary of city managers ranged from $6300 to $22,500 in cities of 100,000 to 225,000 population. In cities of 25,000 to 50,000, some getting as much as $35,000. In cities of 25,000 to 50,000 people, the median pay was $12,350. The Granite City council would set the actual salary.

It is an administrator for a million dollars-a-year enterprise worth this much? If he is able and effective, he is able to get the job done for a penny of his salary, the Municipal League says, adding:

"Citizens should not expect to find an expert city manager in a bargain basement. The manager is a professional. Eighty-two percent of city managers have graduate degrees in public administration, and 89% work up to the job from other governmental positions, including a number of assistant city manager positions."

"Local residence is not, and should not be, required in the term, the city's political leader."

Anyone Could Run

Also to be ready to do their appointment of a manager, just as it is in the case of a school superintendent. The manager does not have to have a degree in public administration, but he must have a desire to get "proof of his career."

"Proof of the maintenance of the professional quality of the manager's office is the record of managers now in service."

Third of the active city managers have managed two or more cities, and more than three-fourths of those appointed in recent years have had previous public administrative experience.

"Most managers belong to the International City Managers' Association, which has developed a code of ethics, conducts research activities, publishes a monthly magazine and supplies correspondence courses to help managers provide still better government. Thus the plan gains materially by the fact that managers profit from each other's experience."

The manager's immediate responsibility to the council makes him more genuinely subject to democratic control than an elected mayor, whose activities are not under such close scrutiny by the council and who may be recalled only at stated election times or by complicated legal procedure.

Both supporters and opponents of the managerial plan agree that it is gaining momentum and more acceptance while mayor-and-council commissions are decreasing. Statistics show this to be true.

There is some disagreement over how many cities have abandoned the plan, and why this has occurred. A survey in September 1959 showed that out of 1650 American, Canadian and Puerto Rican communities that had adopted managerial government, 46 of them were without the plan as a result of popular votes to abandon it.

Although the rate of adoption of council-manager has accelerated in recent years, the rate of abandonment has not increased percentage-wise. Of 81 abandoning it, 15 have since returned to it. In other cities abandonment has been proposed but voted down.

A start-of-construction ceremony is being planned for Oct. 26.

The October meeting of the Dunbar school PTA of Madison will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the school cafeteria. Mrs. D. L. Jones, president, will be in charge.

Co-operating as do other mercantile and business establishments in providing these show cases, will be Fleishman's Men's store, Carp's Leader, Department Store, Fredman's Furniture, and Friedman's Furniture and Hardware Co.

And there will be other window parades of UF beneficiaries and benefits.

John D. Solenberger, UF executive director, emphasized today that in no wise is the "marking time" for the signal of the starting gun. Ranks of divisional workers are being solidified, and solutions well under way in many quarters.

Analyzing in detail each of the abandonments, the Municipal League says "this is a remarkably low percentage of backsliders" and adds that it has found such cases as defective charters, economic factors, special political situations, changed conditions and voter apathy.

It comments: "If there is any moral to the story of abandonments of council-manager governments, it is this—friends of the plan cannot with impunity stay by their political activities once a manager charter has been adopted."

"Citizens groups must exercise magic elections. They must be vigilant against the day when opponents will come out of hiding to swing their weight against the charter."

"Managers can manage, but only citizens effort can develop representative councils of political force and leadership. Only citizen effort, in the last analysis, can support the council-manager plan in any city."

Not Self-Propelled

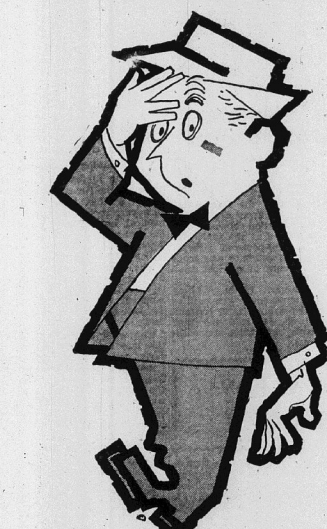

"The plan, in and of itself, is a well-engineered cart capable of producing an effective ride in municipal administration. It is not self-propelled."

"Citizens still have to push the cart up the long hill of progress, by digging their toes into the solid earth of political action. Citizens must also steer the cart, or it will be ditched and abandoned."

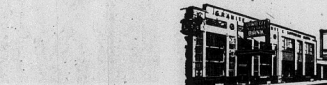

Thus the discussion returns to the original topic of citizen action. How large and effective such action is will determine whether Granite City will adopt council-manager government at this time or at some later date. And it would also largely determine how good the plan would be for the community.

If citizens desire a sweeping change in the way their city is administered, changing the system is the easiest way to accomplish this. This is because many of the present aldermen are well-liked in their own wards and are considered likely to gain re-election.

On the other hand, if the public desires improvement but is generally satisfied with the ward system and the mayor-administrator concept, the Oct. 24 proposal is not as attractive.

Two Pro-Manager Rallies Set Wednesday and Oct. 18

With the Oct. 24, voting on the referendum hearing, Citizens for Council-Manager have slated public "information" rallies for this week and next.

Granite City voters will ballot on a proposed change-over from the present mayor-council system of municipal government to that of a managerial form during a special election.

Seeking to win support for the managerial plan, the Citizens for Council-Manager will hold an open meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at YMCA.

The second public forum will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 15 at the American Legion hall, 24th street and Madison avenue. Clarence R. Henry, chairman of the citizens' group, announced the dates.

At Wednesday night's meeting at the YMCA, the speaker will be Gilbert Alcott, Bloomington, Ill. Chairman Henry describes him thusly:

National Group Commends 7 GC HS Seniors For Work

Seven seniors at Granite City high school are being honored for outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test given last spring. Each student who is endorsed by his principal and the president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Lawrence C. McCauley, principal, today announced that the commended students are Howard Helman, Karen Hordosky, David McKel, David Moss, Michael Mundy, Elma Roberts and Keith Veizer.

John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation said, "Letters of Commendation are being awarded to some 28,000 students throughout the United States in recognition of their excellent performance on the NMSQT."

Outstanding Youngsters

"While these bright youngsters did not reach the status of semifinalists in the 1960-61 merit program, they are so outstanding that we wish to single them out for special attention. The semifinalists and commended students together constitute less than 3% of all high school seniors, and this certainly signifies noteworthy achievement."

The NMS president said letters of commendation provide tangible recognition of the commended students. "It is our earnest hope they will continue their education, and thus benefit not only themselves, but also the nation."

The commended students were among high school juniors in more than 15,000 schools who took the test last spring. The test is a three-hour examination which covers five separate areas of educational development. The commended students are commended for their excellent performance on the test.

Purchasing In Year Reaches Record Level of $61,000,000

Purchasing in the Quad-Cities between July 1, 1959, and June 30, 1960, totaled $61,493,435 — the most for any one-year period in history.

The previous mark of $58,679,800 was set during the calendar year of 1959.

Illinois Department of Revenue records show $32,761,447 buying here in the last half of 1959; $25,215,164 in the first half of 1957; $32,766,245 in the second half of 1957; $25,002,449 in the first half of 1958; $27,183,832 in the last half of 1958; $27,466,306 in the first six months of 1959; $31,213,404 in the last half of 1959; and $30,279,941 in the first half of 1960.

These figures indicate calendar year buying totals of $31,850,509 in 1957; $32,186,281 in 1958; and $58,679,800 in 1959. Similar figures for the July-June periods are $57,976,611 in 1959-57; $57,768,794 in 1957-58; $54,650,138 in 1958-59; and $61,493,435 in 1959-60.

Upward Trend

An analysis shows that the first-half purchasing has gradually increased to a $30,000,000 level after experiencing a slight drop in 1958. Bolstered by Christmas buying, the last-half level has remained well above a $31,000,000 mark except for 1958, when this area was experiencing a recession.

There was a slight drop in the fall of 1959 compared to 1956 and 1957 but it was up $4,029,662 over the fall of 1958.

Although slightly under July-December 1959 buying, the January-June 1960 statistics do not reflect a decline, since there was no Christmas season included. In fact, the first half of this year showed an increase of $2,613,639 over the similar period in the previous year.

A breakdown of the $61,493,435 purchasing in July 1959-June 1960 reveals $48,359,167 re-purchased by 485 establishments in Granite City; $10,048,368 by 164 stores in Madison; $2,432,043 by 83 establishments in Venice; and $633,859 by 12 firms at Mitchell.

$18,000,000 For Food

For the entire Quad-Cities food buying again was far out in front with $19,199,808. Next were purchasing by wholesalers and manufacturers, $10,865,296; buying of automobiles and $3,763,122; and spending at drinking and eating places, $3,993,291.

Also figuring in the $61,493,435 were general merchandise, $4,086,678; filling stations, $3,800,192; lumber, building and hardware firms, $2,895,267; apparel stores, $2,631,854; furniture, household and other goods, $2,104,528; and all other, $3,400,537.

The miscellaneous category included fuel and ice dealers, drug stores, jewelry stores, farm and garden supply stores, flor-double the hospital's facilities but hospital rooms are so devised that double-use is possible.

Gabriel said today that while the annex-addition is basically a 100-bed wing, it can be made to accommodate up to 150 patients.

To Raze Oldest Building

And in a further step to meet modern-day needs, a section of the old, outmoded hospital building dating back 55 years, is to be razed. Its removal, Architect Gabriel pointed out, will afford parking space for the medical and nursing staff, aides, patients and visitors.

A Lutheran organization built the hospital and operated it during its initial decade and a half. Coupled with the present facilities, the annex will rank St. Elizabeth's a major, 200-bed hospital.

Not only will the Dr. Blinney wing afford the needed bed spaces, stand as a monument alike to the Sisters of Divine Providence but to community conscious and response to appeals for building funds.

Breakdown Of Funds

Sister Stanila's fiscal records show that about $700,000 came from public subscriptions and some additional funds from this source are expected; a federal aid grant of $54,000, and $67,000 from the Ford Foundation.

However, she noted somewhat wistfully, the lion's share of the building costs must be borne by the religious order.

"Our program for the Nov. 27 civic dedication and open-house reception is incomplete," she reiterated. "It will be announced later in detail and we want as many as possible to join with us in this truly Red Letter day on the calendar of St. Elizabeth Hospital."

"Grateful, indeed, are we for the support we have elicited and we hope pray and work for and towards the goal of affording the area with the best of possible facilities."

Mercer Raies To Win Inter-City League Playoff Title

Wells Bats In Deciding Run In 10th; Branding Homers As State Falls, 8-7

Alton's Ground Game Crushes Granite City, 41-13

Roger Wells' clutch single in the 10th inning scored Don Crabtree from third with the deciding run as Mercer Funeral Home edged State Savings and Loan of East St. Louis at Wilson Park yesterday afternoon, 8-7, and gained possession of the President Vernon Lucas Cup.

The Granite Cityans fought back from a four-run deficit in the fifth inning, tied the score in the seventh and got a stellar relief job from Fitcher Dick Portell as they won their 13th straight Inter-City game and the league playoff title.

Mercer had defeated State Savings in East St. Louis last week, 11-2, in the first playoff game; Howard Dartt's crew won the Red Division playoffs; Mercer represented the Blue Division in the final best-two-out-of-three series.

The Granite City club drew first blood. Don Crabtree opened the home half of the first by drawing a base on balls. Andy Angeloff laid down a sacrifice bunt, and all hands were safe when State Starter Ed Buzza erred on the throw.

Angeloff swiped second and, after two were out, Buzza walked Charles Johnsonmeier and Don Dillard, forcing in Crabtree.

The visitors took the lead with three runs in the top of the third. With one out, Cliff Eckles knocked and Bob Croak singled. Eckles scored on a hit by Ralph Turley, with the other runners advancing to second and third.

On the throw to the plate, Larry McCaskey plated them both with the third hit of the inning.

Branding Clouts Homer Rich Branding unloaded a two-run homer far down the right field line in the third to tie the score at 3-3. His blow came after Wells had opened the frame with a single.

State scored four big runs in the fifth. Croak reached on an error, and Turley followed with his second hit. McCaskey hit a rining triple to left-center, scoring two, and then rode home on Catcher Don Bruce's hit.

Don Burns forced Bruce at second, and John Adams followed with a single. He was promptly forced by McKinney, but Eckles singled home another run and Portell replaced Mercer Starter Jack Buente.

Portell got out of the inning without any more damage being inflicted, but State Savings had moved ahead 7-3.

Mercer got one of the runs back in the fifth when Johnsonmeier opened with a one-base hit, and John Adams followed with a single. Bill Diak drew a walk, and the fourth ball being a single in the 10th by Johnsonmeier moving over to third. He scored Granite City tied the game in the seventh. Johnsonmeier's single got things rolling with a lead-off single. When Dillard also cracked out a base hit, Eckles replaced Buzza on the mound for the East St. Louisans.

Bill Diak greeted Eckles with a single, Johnsonmeier scoring. After Rudy Diak went out, Portell walked to lead the bases. Crabtree drew another free pass to force in Dillard, and Angeloff contributed another sacrifice. This one a fly ball, scoring Bill Diak with the tying run.

Eckles settled down, blanking Mercer in the eighth and ninth, but Portell was just as effective. He was touched for a two-out single in the 10th by the State Savings reliever, the only hit third gave up in scoring his third win of the season.

Leadoff hitter Crabtree got the decisive home half of the 10th, rolling with a single, and Angeloff picked up his fourth sacrifice of the afternoon. Crabtree moved from second to third on an infield error, and Wells dropped his single into right-center, scoring Crabtree with the winning run.

Lucas Presents Trophies League President Vernon Lucas presented the playoff cup to Mercer Manager Ollie Miller following the game. Division and playoff trophies also went to Mercer. Manager John Harrison of Collinsville's McMackin Buick, and Dartt.

The league's batting championship trophy is to be presented at a later date to Angeloff, who topped the league with a .460 average. Mercer won the team batting championship with a .386 average.

Redbirds Score In Every Period; Four TD's By Goodman

Alton's speedy Redbirds, ably paced by 155-pound halfback Jerry Goodman, scored four times in 24 minutes here Friday night, crossed Granite City's goal line in every quarter and left the slower Warriors in the dust and on the short end of a 41-13 score.

Goodman, a replacement for speed merchant B. B. Gater who was out with a pulled muscle, proved no slouch himself as he scored four touchdowns, three on wide-sweeping runs and the fourth on a 57-yard return of an intercepted Granite City pass.

Granite City made a ballgame of it for one quarter, but was then quickly outdistanced as Ralph McClain's squad struck quickly, scoring 14 points in the second quarter and 13 more in the third period.

Opening March Alton drew first blood, taking the opening kickoff and marching 38 yards to the GC two from where Goodman scooted over for the score.

Quarterback Terry Barton furnished the snap from center on the attempted kick from placement for the seventh point but picked up the ball and ran it over with only three minutes elapsed in the quarter.

The Warriors reciprocated by staging their only long march of the evening. Quarterback Jerry Wallace cupped the drive by finding his favorite target end Pat Schuman, open on the Alton five. Schuman carried the ball over with five minutes remaining in the period, but John Allen was stopped short when he tried to smash in for the extra point. The 7-6 count was as close the Warriors got.

Two Quick Scores Goodman & Co. took charge quickly in the second period. The Alton halfback scored twice on runs of 12 and eight yards. Spilled between his TD jumps was a wide-sweeping run which gained 41 yards. End Sam Joannoply, Redbird place-kicking specialist, booted both extra points and Granite City left the field at intermission trailing 21-6.

After holding the Warriors on the opening series of plays in the third period, Alton scored again with four minutes of the quarter gone when fullback Bill Richardson climaxed a march by slanting into the GC end zone from 12 yards out. Stampley failed to split the uprights for the only time during the evening and Alton led 27-6.

Interception - Score

Goodman scored the touchdown which broke the Warriors' back the next time Granite City got its hands on the ball. Playing at one of the defensive half-back positions, he snagged a Wallace pass and scored 57 yards down the sidelines for a score, outrunning all Warrior pursuers. Stampley converted again and Granite City was out of the ballgame, 34-6.

Adding insult to injury, Alton put one more TD on the board early in the final period when Barton, on the quarterback option, pitched out to substitute halfback Loren Randall. Randall skirted end for 26 yards and the Redbirds' sixth, TD, Stampley converted for the fourth time.

"Flex-Flicker" Clicks Warrior coach Andy Sullivan, experimenting freely in the closing minutes, found one last touchdown combination. Larry Noblin, in at the signal-calling spot, flipped a pass in the flat to Schuman, who lateraled to Charles Haug on the "flex-flicker" pass which carried 14 yards to the Alton six and set up the final score of the game.

Halfback Dave Sparks punched in front the one yard line on a fourth down play, and Noblin followed with a successful extra point to Schuman.

The Warriors, in contrast to last week's rough game with Collinsville, were penalized only 10 yards Friday. But the Red-men could amass enough yardage for just six first downs. Another pleasant surprise in what was for the most part a splendid evening for was the running of halfback Ken Berry, who was getting his first real chance to play steadily.

Warrior center Bob Summers was treated for a leg injury at St. Elizabeth Hospital following the game. Alton stuck almost exclusively to the ground. Barton threw just six passes, completing only one.

Braves' Defense Shines In 26-0 Victory Thursday

Hard-nosed defensive play by the Coolidge junior high school Braves stood out here Thursday afternoon as Frank Kraus' crew tripped Collinsville 26-0 for its third straight victory of the football season.

Coolidge stopped Collinsville scoring treats twice, once in the opening minutes of the game on its own 10, and again midway in the final period inside the five yard line.

After the Braves took over in the shadow of their own goal post in the first quarter, half back Jim Parker carried the ball all the way to the Collinsville 30 on the first play from scrimmage. Jerry Nelson crashed over from the one-yard line moments later to give Coolidge a 6-0 lead, and that was the way the score stood at the end of the first half.

Quarterback Bob Karandjoff ploughed the ball 50 yards to the Collinsville 15 in the second quarter to set up the second TD, and then bulldozed over from one foot out and ran for the extra point as the Braves took a 13-0 lead.

Fullback Bob Pyle and Halfback Nelson turned in runs of 42 and 47 yards to set up the third Bruce Nelson Karandjoff scored from the three on a keeper.

Another halfback, Jim Nemeth, intercepted a Collinsville pass on his own 40 and returned to the victory 30, from where Karandjoff paused to end Ron Yates for the final TD and then hit Charles Stephens for the extra point.

Kraus singled out the defensive play of middle Guards Ernie Korn and Larry Curry, and called the work of middle Linebacker Mike Starke the "most outstanding" of the game. The Braves will play in Bethalto Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Methodical Dupo Stalls Madison Offensive Machine, Grinds Out 14-0 MWC Win Friday

Dupo's Tigers came to Madison Friday night touted as a passing football club, but Paul Taylor's team made excellent use of the "belly series," stayed mainly on the ground and went away with its second straight Midwestern Conference win, 14-0.

For Coach Glen Pickering and the Trojans the game was another story of offensive frustration. Madison penetrated as deep as the Dupo 20-yard line only once all evening, and on two other occasions when it seemed as if the Big Green might sustain drives, families gave the ball to the visiting team.

2nd Quarter Score
The teams played a scoreless first quarter, but the 12 minutes ended with the Trojans knocking on the touchdown door at the Trojan two. The clubs walked the entire length of the field and quarterback Jim Purice kept and hanged over from the one foot line on the third play in the second period. Sonny Pratt booted the extra point from placement and Dupo took a touchdown lead with 11:57 left until half time. Playing between their 30-yard stripes most of the second quarter neither squad could get rolling offensively.

Dupo took to the air as time ran out, and one of Parker's tosses went astray. Fred Becker intercepted on the Madison 26 and for a moment it looked as if he was going to pick up the necessary blocking and go all the way down the sidelines. He was caught from behind however, on the Dupo 40, as the gun sounded the end of the first half.

One Sustained Drive
Halfback Carl Drayton picked up 18 yards on a slick reverse slant in the third quarter to spark the only sustained drive of the game by Madison. In nine plays the Trojans moved from their own 25 to the Dupo 18.

Needling about a yard, on fourth down, halfback Ken Griggs went wide around left end, but was caught behind the line and downed on the 20. Madison did not threaten again.

Dupo began its march toward a second TD early in the final period. Parker, a slick ball-handler as well as passer, kept the Madison defense just loose enough by tossing an occasional aerial, and the Tigers gained short yardage consistently on plunges and slants by backs Pratt, Rich Byerly and Jim White.

Mental Health Clinic Gets UF Aid; Work Scope Cited

Now beginning the second half of its first year of service in the Quad-Cities area, the Granite City office of the Madison County Mental Health Clinic shares as a beneficiary in United Fund giving.

The office at 1234 N. Niedringhaus avenue, is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Mrs. J. C. Crouch is the psychiatric social worker in charge.

UF's allocation of $7500 represents slightly more than 10% of the clinic's proposed 1961 budget of $80,000. Consequently, Mrs. Crouch points out, the benefits of UF money is important on the fiscal and service front and today urged generous giving in the fund-raising campaign opening Oct. 13.

$40,000 From State

"Approximately $40,000 of our budget will be derived from grants from the State Department of Public Welfare," Mrs. Crouch continued. "These funds are from payments by relatives of patients who are hospitalized at the state's mental institutions, and the clinic is given this sum as the stipulation that provisions be made for after-care of conditionally discharged patients."

"However, the balance of our budget must be derived from local sources. The Alton Community Chest is contributing to the county mental health clinic, and it is hoped to get proportionate support from the Edwardsville, Collinsville, Troy and Highland areas."

"Other revenue comes from patient fees, determined on a sliding scale basis in relationship to income."

Mrs. Crouch disclosed today the Granite City sub-clinic serves between 80 to 100 patients monthly, with the total number of monthly interviews ranging from 125 to 150.

"We see approximately an equal number of men and women, and an equal number of children and adults," she explained. "Around one-third of our referrals are self-referrals; the second largest number is from schools."

"We likewise have direct referrals from physicians, lawyers, the courts and social work agencies."

Dewey L. Mathews Jr., clinician

psychologist now employed on a part-time basis by the Granite City unit, will become a full-time worker on receipt of his doctorate at Washington University, St. Louis.

Mathews presently is also engaged in part-time research at the Missouri State Hospital, St. Louis, where he has worked both in the out-patient clinic and the in-patient department.

Community Education
In striving best to serve the area directors of the county Mental Health clinic have recommended that a portion of Mrs. Crouch's work time be utilized for community education in mental health.

"As for goals, aims and objectives, Mrs. Crouch has this to say:

"Our intent is to determine from various community groups such as ministers, schoolmen and social work agencies what they see as their needs and as the need of the community for a broader program of mental health education, and to meet these needs as they become known to us."

"Our efforts in this direction, we hope, will include a lecture series gauged to reach mothers and possibly the fathers of first-born infants. It is our feeling this is an area of mental health scarcely touched upon, and an area of paramount need."

"In case history after history mothers tell of the very traumatic first few months, first year or even first two years which they and their first-born have experienced."

"We feel that in such instances we could work co-operatively with the pediatrician to prevent the development of emotional problems, and to treat those already apparent as best as we can."

Mrs. Crouch purposes to make available knowledge of the mental health services to the widening circle of Madison county citizens, and particularly those of the Tri-Cities.

Students View Auto Safety Demonstration

Driving safety demonstrations were conducted Thursday for three groups of driving and physical education students at Granite City high school and that evening for the 88er and Quad-City Sunrise A-H clubs.

Presented by Bob Brave and Jim Wilkins of the Country Mutual Insurance Co. and state safety department personnel, the "test runs" by students showed the effect of increased speed and the distance covered by autos before their drivers can react to a halt.

WHAT EVERY CITY MANAGER WANTS — POWER!

The proposed city-manager form of government will empower someone alien to Granite City to make decisions not subject to appeal. According to the Model Charter as promulgated by the International City Managers' Association, 1313 East 60th Street, Chicago, the city manager shall have the following powers:

* He shall control ALL departments of the city.

* He shall employ and dismiss all heads of departments: the city attorney, treasurer, assessor, collector, judge, police chief, fire chief, engineer, public health officer, coroner, park supervisor, and all other department.

* Councillors attempting to give him advice or guidance on city business may be removed from their ELECTED office by the city manager on the grounds that they are interfering with his administration. (The city manager of Miami, Florida has availed himself of this particular authority more than once.

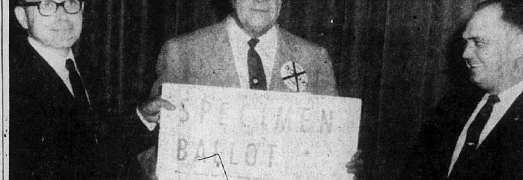

* He shall have power to levy, assess and collect taxes on persons, privileges, subjects, occupations and property of all descriptions and character. He may seize any and all personal property and sell same to satisfy all taxes, costs, etc., such sales to be held at the front door of the City Hall. He may own and operate every type of utility and private business, seize every parcel of property and operate it or resell it. He may do all that at his personal discretion.

It is clear that the exercise of these arbitrary powers by one appointed official is not in the tradition of American representative government! Know the truth and you will reject commissar government on October 24th!

Development Of Horseshoe Lake Will Give Quad-Cities A Top National Resource

The recent release of $100,000 by Gov. William G. Stratton for preliminary work on the proposed $3 1/2 million, 7700-acre park at Horseshoe Lake fits in very nicely with the increasing importance of fresh water as a national resource.

While the Quad-Cities should have no concern about water supply, since the Mississippi river is at its doorstep and in a few years pollution will be prohibited, there is another aspect to the lake that will be beneficial to this area.

Federal and state studies have determined that water—such as a lake—is a necessary adjunct for recreation, and more leisure time puts an added premium on this combination. It has been pointed out that the greatest growth states—California, Arizona and Florida—have led the nation not because of better industrial attractiveness, not because of location, not because of good transit, but because they abound in play areas.

Since water is the "key" to any recreation area, some of these states have more boats and automobiles. The Quad-Cities is not aird, hence does not need a lake for reservoir purposes, but when Horseshoe Lake is developed we believe it will soon be one of this community's most attractive inducements for new families, as well as for new industries which today are not only looking for plant sites but for desirable living conditions for their employees.

Parking Too Near Street Corners In Downtown Granite City Creates Hazard

With two-way travel restored on several of the major downtown Granite City arteries, motorists are finding a greater traffic hazard from cars parked at the curb, almost up to the street intersection. This condition also exists in the downtown fringes.

When automobiles are parked thus, vision is obscured and motorists are not able to see both ways, or far enough around the corner, until they are partly into the intersection.

Fortunately, there have been few accidents from this cause as yet, but the danger is there and ought to be removed before a serious mishap occurs between automobiles or with a pedestrian.

Too often habits make men instead of men making habits.

Concert Series Offers Programs Of Interest To All Residents

The series of concerts to be presented by the Tri-City Community Concert Association during the 1960-61 season again will be a welcome addition to this community's list of entertaining and cultural music events.

Due to success of the campaign to enlist more widespread support among local residents, the association will be able to offer five concerts instead of the usual four this fall and winter.

As in past years, each concert will vary. Although the fifth program has not yet been selected, those announced so far indicate that there will be something of interest and inspiration for virtually all Quad-Cities.

Hon. Congressman Now Hon. Mayor Koza City

Constituents of Rep. Melvin Price (D. East St. Louis) can now call him mayor as well as congressman.

He has been named honorary mayor of Koza City, Oklahoma, which is not only difficult to pronounce, but a far throw from his home grounds.

Appointment was made by Hon. Cholo Cyama, mayor of Koza City. It came in recognition of Price's authorship of legislation to extend U. S. economic assistance to Oklahoma citizens.

He headed a congressional sub-committee which toured the island in 1955.

24-HOUR TOWING — ASK FOR ANDY & JOHN'S BODY SHOP WRECKERS, TR. 7-1063.

Large Number Of Fire Casualties Occur Among Children And At Home

During Fire Prevention Week, which runs through Saturday, Oct. 15, parents are being reminded that one out of three fire deaths is that of a child. Chief Joseph Feters of the University of Illinois firemanship school points out that children's "natural curiosity gets them into trouble and, if they are unsupervised, they often are totally helpless."

Suggestions include acquainting "baby sitters" as well as all members of the family with the fire department telephone number; all exits, including alternate escape routes; the need to take children from the home rapidly in the event of fire or gas leak; and the practice of putting all matches and lighters out of youngsters' sight.

Since nearly half of fire deaths occur in homes, and last year's fire record was the worst in history, the need to follow these and other fire safety rules is apparent.

Principle must be above expediency if our political system is to endure.

"Leif Ericson" and "Columbus" Day Revive Question: "Who Discovered America?"

There's a pair of semi-public, optional holidays on this week's calendar which, over the years, have caused a deal of controversy among historians and no small measure of heartburning between Latins and Scandinavians.

Sunday was Leif Ericson Day, set aside in a number of Midwestern states as a holiday to commemorate the achievements of the intrepid Viking explorer and discoverer who in 1009 A. D. reached what he called Vinland.

Vinland is variously identified as Labrador, New England or the coast along Martha's Vineyard. Wednesday is Columbus or Landing Day. This is an observance of the exploits of the Admiral of the Ocean Sea, Christopher Columbus, who in 1492—as every grade school pupil can tell you—landed his caravels on one of the islands of the West Indies.

These facts are matters of authenticated record. However, the gravamen of the long-lived controversy boils down to "who discovered America?"

Columbus made other voyages of discovery but never, apparently, touched on the North American mainland. Ericson seems to have made a landfall on continental land.

Others have gotten into the act in claiming for their nationals the accolade of having been the first Europeans to set foot on American soil.

Before we're not going to resolve the argument here. It is interesting to note, however, that the gallant pair of explorers come down through the mists of legend and of argumentation to share honors this week.

Scandinavians, quite naturally, back the claims of Ericson partisans. In our yesterday, at least, a majority of the school youngsters were taught that "Columbus discovered America." Italians are in agreement.

Quad-Cities have a choice of two holidays to fete as they line up in an age-old controversy.

Let 'Em Eat Hamburger Says SIU Nutritionist

Parents need not worry as to the nutritional value of the hamburger and milk shake diet their teenagers are so fond of. That's the good word from a Southern Illinois University home economist, who says:

"Very few other combinations of food can so adequately supply one-third or more of the essential nutrients, yet keep calorie count to one-third of the day's need."

Dr. Jan Harper, of SIU's food and nutrition department, makes this finding in the publication of the Illinois State Restaurant Association.

"When teenagers, tourists, shoppers and workers out for a quick lunch call for a hamburger and milk shake they are ordering a lunch which is unusually good from the nutritionist's standpoint."

Closed Columbus Day

In observance of Columbus Day, the driver's license examination station at 2333 Washington avenue, Granite City, will be closed Wednesday.

NEW STREAMLINED STYLING for Lark hardtops is much in evidence at the Elledge Motor Co., 19th street and Grand avenue, Granite City. Over the weekend Studebaker Lark models went on display at its show rooms, along with other entries in the Studebaker-Lark family of motoring elegance and convenience.

Lark 'Sings' New '61 Melody at Elledge Show

Over the weekend Quad-City fans had opportunity to be "first-nighters" at the premier showing of the '61 Lark by Studebaker and the Studebaker Silver Hawk sports car.

The models went on display Saturday at the Elledge Motor Co., 19th street and Grand avenue, and will continue to be on exhibit during the week ahead. Elledge sales and service is proud to have opportunity to present the '61 Studebaker Lark models — including the new Cruiser, a larger, luxury-styled four-door sedan, says W. Sherman Elledge, owner-president. "Studebaker styling for 1961 has successfully created the illusion that the new Larks are longer cars, but not an inch has been added to the Lark's overall length," he pointed out. "Meanwhile interior roominess has been increased. New streamlined styling is the secret; the roof, upper-deck panel and rear deck have all been lowered an inch, and the cowl has been lowered two inches. "With its softened body lines, the Lark's windshield and rear window have been enlarged for greater visibility.

"In addition," he continued, "the new Lark line of 17 models introduces many other smart, crisp refinements in styling and engineering." The Deluxe model on show has single lights with new bezels, but duals are available. Dual head lights are standard on Regal Larks. New circular parking lights have replaced the former air intake grilles on Deluxe Larks. Elledge pointed out to prospective purchasers. He concluded: "Engineering developments in the Studebaker Lark for 1961 provide a few peak in performance which the South Bend automobile manufacturer asserts can be appreciated best by actually driving the car."

Seek Free Piano At Housing Project

A piano is needed at the Kirkpatrick Homes recreation center.

Executive Director David Morgan said dances are held there almost weekly by three different groups of youngsters in teenage and pre-teen clubs and by the Golden Circle Club of persons over 50, but no federal or project funds are available.

"We've searched high and low and have an offer from a moving firm to haul it without charge, but we haven't been able to find anyone wanting to get rid of a piano. It sure would be appreciated by hundreds of people here at the project," Morgan said.

St. Joseph's Church Scene Of Modrusic-Ashby Wedding

One of the early autumn weddings took place Saturday morning at nine o'clock mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, 21st and State streets, when Miss Judith Kathryn Ashby became the bride of John Joseph Modrusic Jr.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ashby, 2032 Edison Avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Modrusic Jr., 921 Greenwood street, Madison.

Rev. J. P. Jordan officiated at the double ring ceremony as Mr. Ashby gave his daughter in marriage.

The altar bouquets for the occasion were made up of white gladioli and white pom poms and bows of white with greenery were tied at each pew down the aisle.

The gown worn by the bride was made of bloom, tulle and peau de soie swaying out from a crush of draping. It featured an oval neckline in front and back, short sleeves, hand-made silk organza, cymbidium orchids with seed pearls and rolled stems and leaves made from the same fabric of the gown. The bride wore a headpiece of large full peau de soie roses as a crown which held the hand-rolled pearl veil.

A single strand of pearls was the only jewelry worn by the bride.

A cascade bouquet of white phenopsis orchids formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Patricia Ashby, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Mary Ann Uffers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Uffers, was bridesmaid.

Miss Carolyn Bradley, home from Southern Illinois University to be bridesmaid, wore a dress identical in gowns of emerald green faille with scooped necklines, cap sleeves, pointed skirt, featuring tiny bows at the waistlines in front and back, and a controlled skirt, street length.

The bridesmaids' hats, made expressly for the wedding, were single organza roses with green dotted veils. Matching shoes of Others hired for cafeteria work were Mrs. Dorothy Hochuli, 4125 Braden avenue, Frohardt grades school; Mrs. Wanda Snyder, 2152 Robert street; Mrs. Dolores Friedrich, 2328 Miracle avenue, Granite City high school; and Mrs. Marlene Turnbull, 1831 Lindell blvd., and Mrs. Margaret Leve, 2813 Wayne avenue, Coolidge junior high.

The board hired as custodians Fred Billeby, 44, of 2120 Missouri avenue, to work at the board office, and Leslie Wilkerson, 43, of 4020 Park lane, unassigned. All of the cafeteria and custodial appointments were made effective Sept. 28.

The board plans to stand by its decision to increase pay of substitute custodians hired in this school year, making their rate $25 a month less than that of assistant custodians, or about $240 an hour, after the first 30 days of employment. Substitutes have been paid a flat $1.85-an-hour rate.

The question arose when those hired in 1959 requested retroactive pay for the 30-day period. A grievance is expected to be filed, it was reported.

Canal Locks Tonnage Shows Seasonal Decline

Freight tonnage on the Chain of Rocks canal and passing through Locks No. 27 began to show the usual seasonal decline during the month of September, a report from the district office of the U. S. Corps of Engineers indicated this week.

Total traffic up and downstream amounted to 1,399,501 tons, or 410,520 tons below last month's total, which was a record for a single month in 1959. The September figures were also the smallest for any month this year since 1948.

Ten-month tonnage totals this year were still above those for 1959 however, as were the number of vessels traveling the canal and the number of lockages at the locks. Freight in the amount of 16,886,731 tons has traveled the canal this year, as compared to 16,636,763 tons for the first 10 months of 1959. Total vessels are up from 25,162 to 25,678, lockages from 5265 to 5703.

Another good comparison of how much traffic has increased over the Chain of Rocks route this year is the increase in Sep-

SIU Building Needs Stressed In Talk

Dr. Andrew Cochman, a member of the faculty of the East St. Louis campus of Southern Illinois University, directed the "explosive" lecture as among the compelling reasons state colleges stand in need of additional building facilities.

Dr. Cochman made his point in a talk before the Noonday Optimists Thursday at the Elk's Lodge. Dr. Cochman urged active, all-out support of the Universities Building Bond referendum to be voted on the Nov. 8 general election.

With the present upswing in the state's birthrate, he argued, college enrollments will be doubled with a relatively short period.

To meet the needs of the swollen student population, Illinois state colleges need to embark immediately on a building expansion program.

The speaker said that in 1952 Illinois births totaled 100,000; this year the figure is expected to reach 200,000.

Dr. Cochman said that while it is "hoped" the approval of the bonding issue will result in no direct tax, if such a direct levy should have to be imposed, it would not exceed $125 a year per person.

Boris Filcoff, head of a Citizens Group for the Bonding issue, was program chairman.

Fire Chiefs Suggest Families Set Escape Routes At Homes

With "Fire Prevention Week" now underway, local fire chiefs today urged all Quad-Cityans to work out escape plans for their homes.

"Fire strikes without warning," the chiefs emphasized. "Every two minutes fire damages a home somewhere in the United States."

The chiefs said the time to work out an escape plan is now and to make certain that everyone in the house is familiar with it.

If fire strikes, first get everyone out of the house—then call the fire department.

Picking Escape Routes

For organizing an escape plan, the chiefs suggest for all members of the family to get together and figure two possible escape routes to the ground from any upstairs bedroom. If one of the two escape routes is cut off, an alternate will be available.

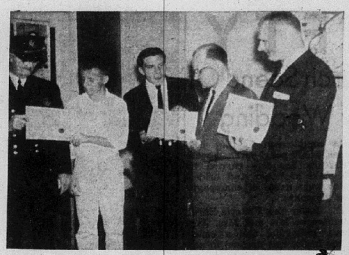

"Suppose you are sleeping in a closed upstairs bedroom," the chiefs said, "you wake up and smell smoke. Don't rush out into the hallway immediately. Go to the door and place the palm of your hand against it. If the door feels hot, it may be that the hallway is already aflame and filled with hot and toxic gases. Either use another escape route or go to the window, awaken people by shouting 'fire!' If there is a phone in the room, quickly call the fire department."

"If the door does not feel hot, open it slightly. Hold your head down, brace the door with your foot and put your hand across the opening to determine how hot and smoky the air is. If the hallway appears to be cool and there are no flames or smoke pouring up the stairway, you may be able to use this regular route of escape."

"However, if there is any question about safe passage down the stairs, go back to the window and await rescue."

Be Sure to Keep Fire Wall

"Be sure to keep the bedroom door closed. The door is a good

LONG DISTANCE station-to-station calls (to a distant number rather than to a particular person) save you more than one third.

GC Park District Commissioners Review Year --- Prepare To Expand

System Will Be 40 Years Old In '61
And Hasn't Stopped Growing Yet; Plans
For Future Big Part of Operation

Tallying up the summer season and the year as a whole to date, the Granite City Park District can score itself with not one but two marks, "A" for achievement and "B" for excellent.

The district came into being back in February 1921, and its original goal was somewhat mundane in view of its subsequent expansion of efforts and field of activity. Granite City's parks, playgrounds and recreational program stand as civic testimonials to productive results — 40 years of going ahead.

And while parks, playgrounds and recreational facilities span the Granite City scene, the park board will be the first to acknowledge that the first to the time to tie back on its laurels.

Much To Be Done

Much remains to be completed; the present program, perfected and augmented, preparations made for the years ahead and its anticipated population expansion.

The first task confronting the district back nearly 40 years ago was the removal of the railroad tracks from the north side of 24th Street and the "beautification" of the south side as well.

There has been a tremendous enlargement of its scope, aims and achievements, and a brief but in no wise comprehensive elaboration of accomplishments is in order here.

First, to be noted, is the present membership of the district park board.

President Barry Loman, Commissioner Milton W. Worthen,

Commissioner Milton W. Worthen, Milton Allen, Clarence Bauney, Earl Bloomquist, Secretary Frank R. Rea, Attorney Randall Robertson, Treasurer Wilbur L. "Jack" Johnson, O. H. Williams, director of parks and recreation and Harold Brown, assistant to the director and head of the recreational program.

Ernest Sieveking, now 55, held in high esteem as "father of the Granite City parks system," is superintendent emeritus.

The city truly has a million-dollar park system but its wide spread benefits to young and old alike, cannot be measured in a monetary sense. The operating district board is an independent agency, responsible only to the electorate who names it.

40th Anniversary Coming

The district will fete its 40th anniversary next February and according to President Loman, there will be some non-elaborate marking of the occasion. Instead of reviewing its past in any ostentatious observance, "the board and district is looking ahead."

"We are thinking in the next few years of acquiring acceptable park and playground areas in Granite City, better to bring health, recreational and sports programs to an even-widening of the home population," Loman emphasized.

But to get down to cases. The district park board can count a total of 129 acres devoted to park, recreational center and other public purposes.

While the home folks hardly need be reminded, nor the kids,

here's the facilities available to them:

Facilities Available

Wilson Park, Memorial Park, Triangle Park, Tri-City Park, Lincoln Place Community Center, Maryland Place Recreational Center and a newcomer: A four-acre tract in the rear of the Nameeki road fire house has been given the district by the city. Here is the site for a new park, as yet unnamed.

The park "brass" and personnel works harmoniously with the city and with school officials in the furtherance of civic benefits and betterment, Loman asserted.

The district's facilities are not only winning new friends, but on the statistical front, whopping figures can be cited to prove its utilization.

The board has carried on activity on many fronts. One of the most spectacular and one focusing the spotlight of public attention on the work was this year's four-day Independence Day celebration — complete with rides, games, concessions, street dance and a giant fireworks display.

Estimate of the turn-outs for the fete, climaxed with the July 4th pyrotechnic display, range from 12,000 to 15,000.

But let Park Supt. Williams tell of other highlights.

During the past summer, a whopping 49,000 used the facilities of the swimming pool, of which an estimated 70% were in the teen-age bracket.

In 1959, the district installed new playground equipment at Triangle Park, West Granite, and went ahead with this program in the setting up of new play centers at Tri-City Park, Maryland Place, Wilson Park and additions to the Lincoln Place Community Center.

This was at a cost of roughly $13,500 in new equipment for playground users and an additional $2500 for installations.

And, according to Williams, the district has high hopes and expectations of providing the city with additional playground areas and installations.

Summer Staff

Of the summer staff of the board, the break-down is as follows:

Maintenance men, 16; swim pool employees, 17; park police, 8; gardeners, 3; concession stand employees; recreational department, 20; umpires for baseball games, 24; and three administrative personnel.

New parkside rest rooms and new concession stands were put up during the current season; the softball field was enclosed by a five-foot fence; large numbers of trees and shrubs were planted at Memorial Park; and new parkside are added.

Among these is the park area at Maryland Place and a strip donated by the city, yet to be named.

The district nursery has 600 trees under cultivation, and the catalogue of projects could yet be extended.

Yet another footnote of accomplishment. Charted for next year are new baseball diamonds and the consequent enlargement of the recreational program.

During the season now ended, there were 56 teams of boys, ranging in ages from 7 to 17. At the six centers operated by the recreational department, something like 3500 youngsters took advantage of the facilities; there was a girls' softball program, and hundreds of teenagers participated in the men's volleyball schedule.

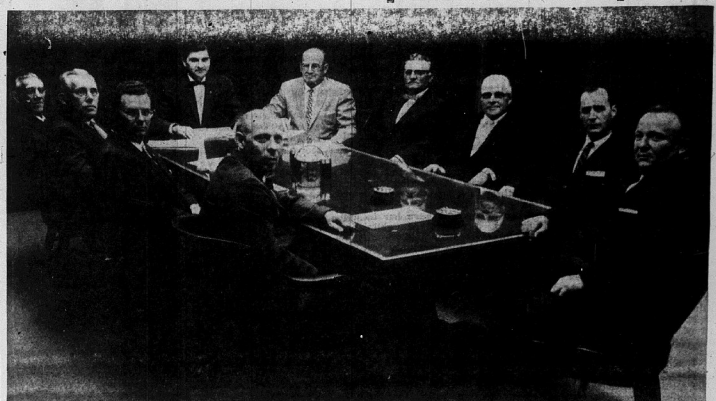

Additionally, eight bus loads of kiddies make the trip to the Forest Park Zoo, and others on the "Lincoln Trail" trip to Springfield and New Salem.

Also, under the recreational program, youngsters, 8 and 9 years old, were afforded opportunity to visit the Gran's Farm at St. Louis.

And it doesn't stop here. There was a summer show of fashion, and the "Music Under the Stars" program attracted 3000 Quad-Cityans.

"Name" bandmen brought their forces to Granite City and the park district played host to league softball meets.

Fins isn't written to the 1960 calendar, which is going ahead with the fall and winter developments on recreational fronts for the young and old alike.

HERE'S THE "HIGH BRASS" to be credited with the successful operation of the city park district, the commissioners and officers. Harold Brown, assistant superintendent and director of recreation, seated, right. Going counter-clockwise around the table, others are: Randall Robertson, attorney; O. H. Williams, superintendent; Commissioner Clarence Bauney, Commissioner Milton Worthen; Commissioner Barry Loman; Commissioner Milton Allen; Commissioner Earl Bloomquist; Secretary Frank Rea and Treasurer Wilbur "Jack" Johnson.

Opening of the state's first Youth Home, for boys 9 through 12 years of age, has been announced by Gov. William G. Stratton. The new home is in Lowden Memorial State Park, near Oregon in Ogle county.

The Illinois Youth Commission, which supervises the home, has transferred 20 youngsters from the Illinois State Training School for boys at St. Charles to the new project.

"Taking these boys out of St. Charles," the governor said, "is another progressive step by the commission."

"At Lowden they will live in the environment of a foster home, away from contact with older boys. They will be given a special school program geared to their needs because all have been academically retarded due to environmental circumstances in the homes they came from."

Children of their age all have individual problems and each boy will receive special attention from teachers and counselors.

Oliver J. Keller Jr., commission chairman, announced that the home is under supervision of Joseph P. Munday, superintendent of the forestry camps conducted by the commission. The home director is Leonard R. Moore, a former teacher at Northern Illinois University. DeKalb, said the university is operating with the commission on the project.

Johnston grass, one of the most damaging weeds known to Illinois farmers, is making serious inroads in southern Illinois, according to the state introduced into Illinois from the South where it is used as a hay and pasture crop. Johnson grass will crowd out crops and will reduce the value of farm land by one-half or more, the department warned.

Supposedly not adapted to Illinois winters as a perennial, Johnson grass has taken over whole fields in Alexander and Pulaski counties and is reported as beginning to be serious as far north as Quincy, Ill., and Terra Haute, Ind. Seedlings in the backwaters of rivers and is first found in bottomland and along highways and railways.

Johnson grass was added to the Illinois Noxious Weed Law by the Illinois Legislature in 1956. Several counties in Illinois have started county weed control programs under the Noxious Weed Law. Counties, townships and individuals interested in Johnson grass control may contact Supt. P. G. Anderson, Division of Plant Industry, or James J. Jeffers, weed control adviser, at the Emerson building, State Fairgrounds, Springfield, Illinois.

Illinois apple production in the 25 commercial counties is estimated by the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service at 2,300,000 bushels, the same as a year ago. An estimated production of 780,000 bushels of peaches is 8% below last year and 29% below the 1949-58 average. Other estimates are 1000 tons of grapes, the same as last year, and 80,000 bushels of pears, 20% below a year ago and 39% below average. This was the lowest pear production in more than 30 years of record.

Applications for permits to hunt on public pheasant, duck and goose hunting areas are pouring into the Springfield office, Director Glen D. Palmer of the Illinois Department of Conservation said today. Palmer urged hunters who plan to hunt on the state-owned areas, and who have not applied for a permit, to do so immediately. Applicants should include the hunter's name and address, his partner's name and address, the area desired, a second character, and the area desired. They should be mailed to Permit Office, Game Management Division, Department of Conservation, Room 106 State Office Bldg., Springfield, Ill.

TOUCH FOOTBALL for boys between the ages of nine and 12, beginning its second season this fall, is one example of the year-round sports program offered by the park district. Included are activities for boys, girls and adults.

FAVORITE HOT WEATHER ACTIVITY of park visitors is a cool dip in the Wilson Park swimming pool, which was completed in 1940 to replace a sand-bottom pool which had been in use since 1924. The pool attracts thousands during its normal 3½-month operating period each summer.

SEVERAL TRIPS by bus were taken by enrollees in the park district's summer program this year. Youngsters pictured here were anxious to get underway to the St. Louis zoo in Forest Park, where they picnicked and watched the animal show. Standing behind the first bus are Mrs. Helen Bjorklund, director of the summer recreation program; Barry Loman, park board president; and Harold Brown, park recreational director.

ERNST SIEVEKING, superintendent emeritus of Wilson Park, stands near the sunken gardens in the park, much of the design and construction of which were his responsibility in the early 1920's. Mr. Sieveking still maintains an active interest in the park, especially its trees, shrubs and flower beds, many of which he planted originally.

Angle Park Causes Crash

Diagonal parking in the 1800 block of Cleveland blvd. was blamed for an auto-truck collision Friday morning. The delivery truck of Dolly Madison Cakes Co., 1500 Madison avenue, was being driven by E. G. Schmitt, 64, of 2408 Cleveland blvd. The report shows both vehicles were traveling south and the truck was maneuvering at a parking space. No injuries were listed.

VA Has Problems With Vets Identities

The veteran's letter was signed with a scrawled "Thanks, Million" so careful Veterans Administration clerks dutifully checked the index in files for veteran names. Million before tossing it into the unidentifiable basket.

The action wasn't silly at all, explained John B. Naser, manager of the VA Regional Office in Chicago. There actually is a veteran in the files named Million and VA learned long ago that someone could have the first name "Thanks."

Careless veterans and veterans with the same names like these father-and-son combinations, not to mention some 10,000 Johnsons and 8000 Smiths, are creating quite an identification problem for the VA these days.

Of more than half a million pieces of mail flowing through the Chicago office of the VA each month, some 21,000 fail to provide proper identification of the veteran.

Middle initials are missing; last names actually misspelled; addresses are wrong; and C-numbers — each veteran has his own once he deals with the VA — are omitted. All this requires inexact tracing action by the VA.

That wasn't so bad, Naser said, until the VA learned that 10,000 Johnsons and 8000 Smiths and hundreds of multiple duplications among the 1,500,000 files maintained by the Chicago VA office.

There are 28 John C. Smiths and there are five father-and-son Smiths who not only have the same full name but the same address. Just to "complicate things, several of these fathers and sons fought in the same branch of service in the same war."

Actually, Naser points out, there are very few names which are not duplicated in the files. "Nature of the veteran to identify himself properly often leaves VA without an answer."

Classic is the case of the mother who wrote a VA insurance center enclosing $700 in premium payments "for my son."

That letter was identified by an alert VA clerk who recalled that several years before a similar unsigned payment had been made. He was right—it was the same mother.

An estimated production of 780,000 bushels of peaches is 8% below last year and 29% below the 1949-58 average. Other estimates are 1000 tons of grapes, the same as last year, and 80,000 bushels of pears, 20% below a year ago and 39% below average. This was the lowest pear production in more than 30 years of record.

Applications for permits to hunt on public pheasant, duck and goose hunting areas are pouring into the Springfield office, Director Glen D. Palmer of the Illinois Department of Conservation said today. Palmer urged hunters who plan to hunt on the state-owned areas, and who have not applied for a permit, to do so immediately. Applicants should include the hunter's name and address, his partner's name and address, the area desired, a second character, and the area desired. They should be mailed to Permit Office, Game Management Division, Department of Conservation, Room 106 State Office Bldg., Springfield, Ill.
